We hope you are looking forward to this exciting season which is brimming with world-class performances at two of the City’s most iconic venues - Hull City Hall and Hull New Theatre.

2019 marks a very important milestone for Hull New Theatre as the autumn sees the 80th anniversary of the first theatrical performance that was presented at the venue. In honour of this we are proud to present an ambitious programme of unmissable events including the record-breaking musical The Bodyguard, outstanding drama with the renowned National Theatre’s Macbeth, breath-taking dance from Matthew Bourne’s New Adventures with the critically acclaimed Swan Lake and family fun from the award-winning Birmingham Stage Company presenting Tom Gates Live to name just a few highlights.

In tandem with this, world class entertainment continues at Hull City Hall with a diverse programme of events including live music, headline comedy, and classical concerts; one this time not to miss being the world premiere of 8-Bit Symphony, a celebration of the forgotten golden age of British computing genius with the Hull Philharmonic Orchestra.

With so much choice, there has never been a better time to join Hull Theatres ‘Extras’ membership scheme where you can take advantage of early access to some of the biggest shows with exclusive members’ only offers and discounts. Read on to discover more about this incredible scheme.
